TALK OF THE TOWN

M. S. Levin of the Union Clothing Co. went to New York City yesterday on a short business trip.

Miss Mildred Lander of Washington street is in Boston for a few days visiting friends and relatives.

World's series baseball games reproduced play for play on Playograph, 3 p. m. every day, Playhouse, Montpelier—adv.

Rev. F. L. Goodspeed of this city spoke before a body of the students at the vespers service at the University of Vermont yesterday afternoon.

The amusement committee of the Odd Ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. William Stevens, Pleasant street, on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Ralph Davis, who is employed in a broker's office in Boston, is visiting for a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Davis of Maple Grove street.

The following names should have been included Saturday with the committee having in charge the Winnetka council bazaar: Mrs. M. S. Levin, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. Hugh Christie, Mrs. William Walker, Alex. Simpson and George Crichton.

Georgianna Mudgett, representative P. F. Bonney's Sons, 349 Washington street, Boston, will take orders for coats, capes, suits, ready-to-wear dresses, etc. Prices reasonable. Goods on approval. Satisfaction guaranteed. Tel. 47-W, 33 Park street—adv.

Mrs. Ida Martinson left Saturday with Dr. and Mrs. Homer Sowles for a 10-day visit in Boston. Her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. Homer Sowles, have been visiting in Barre for several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sowles of Jeckley hill.

Twelve of the Barre teachers motored yesterday to the White mountains in the cars of Ira Houston and J. R. Sanguineti. The party enjoyed a basket picnic at Crawford Notch and all report a most enjoyable afternoon. The scenery there is probably unsurpassed at this time of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Smith of Summer street took their young son, Gordon, to the Boston Children's hospital, where this morning he was to be operated on by Dr. Robert W. Lovett, infantile paralysis specialist. The child lost the use of both legs two years ago last June and has been severely crippled ever since. Dr. Lovett has had extremely good success with such cases and it is hoped this will prove to be another such.

The ladies' aid of the Baptist church will have their harvest dinner and supper Tuesday, Oct. 7. Menu for dinner: Boiled dinner, Indian pudding, mince, apple and pumpkin pie, white and brown bread, pickles, cheese, doughnuts, tea and coffee. Price, 35c. Served from 12 to 1:30. Menu for supper: Meat and vegetable hash, pies, doughnuts, hot rolls. Price 30c. Served from 5:30 to 6. The Unitis class will hold a sale also Tuesday afternoon and evening of plain and fancy articles—adv.

A very enjoyable evening was spent Saturday when about thirty friends gathered on Spring street to celebrate Miss Victoria Cecchini's 17th birthday. Music was furnished by the following musicians: Pianist, Miss Ene Aldridge; violinists, John Xeno and Eugene Manira; guitar, Alexander Jeffrey. A vocal solo was given by Miss Leona Lamperti and one by Gigi Sassaroli. Refreshments were served, and soon games and dancing began. Miss Cecchini received many presents during the evening. Not until a late hour did the young people disperse to their homes.

Miss Josie Albisetti of Foster street was given a very pleasant surprise at her home last Friday evening, when about 40 of her friends gathered to celebrate her birthday. The evening was spent in playing games, dancing and singing. Miss Nellie Curie gave several vocal solos, which were much enjoyed by the party. Miss Lillian Corti acted as pianist during the evening. Miss Albisetti was presented a silk umbrella, Miss Inez Maberini making the presentation, to which Miss Albisetti gratefully responded. Refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and wafers. Dancing was enjoyed by the party until about midnight.

Yesterday was observed as rally day at the Hedding Methodist Episcopal church, and attendances at both the morning and evening services and at the Sunday school hour were large. During the morning service the pastor, Rev. G. Lipsky, delivered an inspiring message from the subject, "The Joy of Evangelism." Following the sermon baptism was administered by the pastor and 15 persons were taken into full or probationary membership. At the Sunday school hour the rally day service was used. The evening service was devoted to a special program, "Youth and the New Day," presented by the Sunday school with the aid of the choir. After congregational singing, scripture reading and prayer, there were recitations given, and then followed a four-part pageant, which was rendered very well and held for 45 minutes the close attention of a large audience, the church being filled nearly to its capacity. The pageant portrayed the conditions of the past, showing its failure, and after this was presented the new day with its conditions. The lesson running through the pageant was the need of the work to-day, as the teachings of the church and there was a plea for the support of the Sunday school. Dean Davis was very good as Old World, having the part of an elderly man. Mrs. Glenn C. Carpenter was costumed as New World and presented the part effectively. Alfred A. Boyce appeared in the part of Church of Christ and gave a forceful presentation of its case. Mrs. B. G. Lipsky, in a garb of black and a service flag with gold stars, was especially impressive in her presentation of the part for the fallen soldier. There were 25 participants, among them several in costume, and all the parts were very well taken. The Netop class gave its close co-operation in the work of presentation, and a large measure of the success is due to the efforts of its members.

MONTPELIER

Mrs. Charles Drew Died Sunday at the Age of 49.

Mrs. Charles Drew died at her home on North street Sunday morning following a short illness of a kidney trouble. Carrie Gordon was born in Bristol, N. H., 49 years ago. She was twice married, her second husband being Charles Drew. One daughter, Rose, born by her first husband, with her husband, survive the deceased in her own family. She also leaves two brothers, Arthur and William Gordon of Moretown. The deceased had been a hard working woman all her life. The funeral will take place from her late home at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. J. W. Hatch left the latter part of the week for Bangor, Me., where his marriage to Miss Nellie May Worth was to take place at noon Sunday at the bride's home in Bangor. Dr. Gray, district superintendent of the Bangor district in the Methodist conference of that city, officiating at the ceremony. No information had been received at the Hatch home in Montpelier this morning but it is expected that the ceremony took place as arranged. They were to go to Marlboro, Me., for their honeymoon. Miss Worth has been a teacher in the Bangor high school for 11 years. Dr. Hatch was presiding elder in that district for some time, and has for several years been principal of Montpelier seminary.

Miss Leonide Greaney, who has been connected with the secretary of state's office for a few years, is completing her services there and will go to the office of Collector J. E. Kennedy in the customs office in Burlington, beginning work there as bookkeeper as soon as she can arrange to leave her work in the secretary's office. Miss Greaney has been cashier in the automobile department of the office for some time. Before the department became so large she had charge of the accident end of the department, as well. Since coming to Montpelier Miss Greaney has made many friends who wish her well in her new employment.

Three Montpelier boys figured in the Dartmouth-Norwich football game Saturday afternoon, all of them appearing in the Norwich university line-up, while a fourth, Stacy Clark, is laid up with a cracked bone in his elbow and the team is in a cast. Those who participated in the game were William Barrett, who was captain of last year's team, John Bartlett, a former star of Montpelier high school, and Clifton Smith, also of the same high school team. All appeared to give good accounts of their efforts. The local boys criticized the decisions of the referee and claimed that one goal was allowed Dartmouth that should not have been, while Norwich was not allowed one because the referee claimed he blew his whistle before the ball was over the line.

Negotiations are under way in which, if completed, Willard P. and Arthur A. Whitcomb will sell the Montpelier Steam Laundry to E. H. Pike of Montpelier and Pliny Pike of St. Johnsbury, both of whom have been connected with the laundry business for some years. The Whitcomb brothers are one of the oldest firms in the city, the laundry having been established over 30 years ago by their father, after which they entered the business and have conducted it since the death of their father. Willard Whitcomb has been secretary for some years of the Vermont and New Hampshire Laundrymen's association. It is understood that if the sale is completed it will not include the dry cleaning plant.

Speculation is still holding forth relative to the repairs that have been made upon Miller's inn by the Montpelier Savings Bank and Trust company, which recently purchased the property. It is known that parties from outside the city have been looking over the proposition, but thus far nothing seems to have come from it. It is understood there are parties in the city who would like to take the management of the hotel.

H. E. Holmes, who has been ticket agent at the Central Vermont station on the night trick for several months, completed his services Saturday and has gone to Florida, where he enters the photography business, which he has followed for many years. Mr. Dewar of St. Albans is taking his place at present, the job having been placed for bids.

GRANITEVILLE

Alex. Bryant, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Griffin, passed away this morning at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. John Bryant. The funeral will be held at the house Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in the Wilson cemetery. Rev. D. C. Huntington will officiate.

Notice.

Regular meeting of branch No. 12, W. I. U. of N. A., will be held in Miles' hall on Wednesday, Oct. 8, at 7:30.

Attention to the "Snort-Bikes."

The suspension by the secretary of state of a few licenses held by motorcyclists puts penalties upon a class of motorists who have by no means received the attention they deserved. In speeding, cut-out and light violations, the propellers of these "snort-bikes" have done rather more than their share of lawbreaking—and very generally without prosecution.—Rutland Herald.

POSSIBLE OIL TERRITORY.

Has Been Located in Parts of New Mexico.

Alamosa creek valley, which is about 50 miles northeast of Magdalena, in northern Socorro county, New Mexico, includes several areas in which it is worth while to drill for oil and gas, according to a report just submitted by Dean E. Winchester for publication by the United States geological survey, department of the interior. Mr. Winchester describes anticlines in which the sandstones of the Miguil formation (Manos shale) and the Dakota sandstone can be penetrated at depths not exceeding 2500 feet, considers the possibility of finding oil and gas in the region, and after making a study of the physical and chemical characteristics of the rocks, including the carbonaceous beds, concludes that the chances of getting oil are good and that if oil is found it will be of high grade and will probably be accompanied by gas. The rock beds in the region have been folded into well-defined anticlines and synclines, and in some places have been faulted, but the oil, if it ever existed in the formations, has probably not escaped. One of the most favorable places for testing the region for oil and gas is along the Coconino anticline, in section 19 or 30, T. 4 N., R. 9 W., where fuel for the boilers of the drilling machines can be mined within sight of the rig. The chances of getting oil or gas in the formations below the Dakota sandstone are not considered good, but these sands can be tested by a well drilled to a depth of 3000 feet in section 2, T. 3 N., R. 8 W., on the west side of the Red Lake anticline and fault.
